

CALL FOR PAPERS - SUBMISSIONS ACCEPTED

*MILLENNIAL ASIA*

*Inaugural Issue : January to June 2010*

* *

*Asian Economy, Society and Polity*

* *

*Guidelines for Authors*:

The journal publishes original research papers with comparative perspectives in any area of social sciences and humanities related to Asian Countries. All papers are refereed through a double blind process. Please submit your paper in the form of an MS Word file attached directly to either of the Editors at lakhwindsingh07@gmail.com shukhpal@iimahd.ernet.in and *always * send a copy to aassouthasia@gmail.com This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it . Submitted papers should not have been previously published nor be currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. Papers will be published as soon as possible, usually in the issue of the journal that follows acceptance of the article.

The submissions may include original research articles, review articles, book reviews and thematic discussions. Articles must have clearly stated questions and theses or hypotheses. Their contribution and findings must be succinctly explained.

Because Millennial Asia is committed to interdisciplinary work and research on complex historical and contemporary Asian themes, scholars are encouraged to cite scholarship beyond the narrow confines of single disciplines alone and to explain their work concisely to those from different disciplinary areas.

*Type of Articles*:

1. Research articles:

- Articles must be no longer than 10,000 words, including list of tables, charts, diagrams and references using Times New Roman, Font 12 and double-space
- All articles must be accompanied by an abstract of 150-200 words
- Up to six key words may be provided by the contributor

2. Review articles: Review articles must be no longer than 5,000 words

3. Book reviews: Desirable length for book reviews is 2,000 words

4. Thematic discussions: Desirable length for thematic discussions is 3,000-5,000 words.

REFERENCES

Millennial Asia prefers to use American Psychological Association (APA) reference style which uses (i) in-text parenthetical citations, and (ii) a reference list (sorted by author's surname) at the end of the article. Please refer to the American Psychological Association (APA) publication manual at <http://www.apastyle.org/> for instructions on preparation of manuscript.

Examples:

Brown, D. S. (2004) A theory of International Relations, New York: McGraw-Hill. Dickson, R. P., & Jordan, M. (2009) Innovation: Location matters. Review of Management, 42(4), 28–36. Ray, A. S. (2009) “Emerging Through Technology Capabilities? Analysis of India’s Technological Trajectory”, in Manmohan Agarwal (ed.) India’s Economic Future: Education, Technology, Energy and Environment, New Delhi: Social Science Press

OTHER GUIDELINES:

1. All articles (including charts, diagrams, references etc.) must be submitted in electronic format (MS Word). Graphs may be sent in MS Excel format 2. All contributors are requested to send complete contact details for correspondence. This will include full name and institutional affiliation, postal address, email, telephone and fax numbers.

*On behalf of the AAS Journal's Editorial Board, may I request you to please send in your submissions not later than March 10, 2010.***

Best regards,

Reena

--

Dr. Reena Marwah

Secretary General,

Association of Asia Scholars

M-0091-9810824350; Off: 0091-11-25781507; Fax: 0091-11-25743074 www.asiascholars.org